The Center for the Study of Culture, Technology and Work presents:
The End of Democracy and the Importance of Greece: A Discussion with Konstantinos Tsoukalas

Friday October 25, 5-7, Room C198

Konstantinos Tsoukalas is Alexander S. Onassis Fellow and Visiting Professor at Columbia University. His books include: War and Peace After the 'End of History'; The Invention of Alterity; Idols of Civilization; and The Greek Tragedy.

365 5th Ave. (corner of 34th St.), New York, NY
Website: http://csctw.commons.gc.cuny.edu
For further information contact Peter Bratsis, pbratsis@bmcc.cuny.edu